Program: East Bay Stand Down (EBSD) – Helping displaced and needy veterans and their families

Speakers: Steve Lackenbauer and Charles Boykins

It is estimated there are over 180,000 needy and homeless Veterans throughout the Nation. Within the nine San Francisco Bay Area counties, the VA estimates that there are over 6,000 homeless Veterans.

EBSD has been sponsored by a broad base of community agencies led by the VA'S Concord Vet Center, The Rotary Clubs in the East Bay Counties, and other organizations and individuals. EBSD has been held every two years since 1999. It is a four day event during which a "tent city" of 25 tents is erected to house as many as 500 Veterans, men and women and their families. Approximately 1200-1500 volunteers participate throughout the planning and conducting of the event. EBSD costs approximately $112,000 and all funding is primarily through monetary and in-kind donations and services. No donated money is used for salaries and donations are tax deductible.

Veteran participants are screened prior to admission to the event, to ensure Veteran status and eligibility. The participants are bused in from various points throughout the Bay Area. The Veterans receive food, clothing, shelter, showers, haircuts and other basic necessities. VA and Military Health Care Providers work side by side with volunteers to assist with physical, dental and mental health needs. Counselors are available to address substance abuse issues, employment options, benefits, legal assistance, DMV (driver's license or identity card) help, and spiritual concerns.

The objective of the EBSD is to place 20% of the eligible participants directly into residential programs.

EBSE 2010 will be in August at the Alameda County Fairgrounds in Pleasanton, Ca. Needs lists and volunteer applications are available at their website: www.eastbaystanddown.org.
